Bruce Ryser,
FMC

Bruce has spent 34 years in the pest control industry as an operator, sales representative, training director & manager. He is a certified pest control operator, Florida DACS licensed in the category of GHP, Lawn & Ornamental and Termite Control as well as Public Health. Currently, he serves as FMC's Product Development Manager for the southeast. Primary responsibilities include field evaluations of new active ingredients and formulations. Bruce regularly interacts with urban entomologists across the southeast as well as key end users to put out trials and collect data supporting future product registrations. He has developed over 60 pest & termite presentations and is a frequent speaker at industry recertification training events across the southeast. Bruce is a member of The Florida Pest Management Association as well as both The Florida Entomological Society and ESA. Interests include ants & termites and their control, especially the Formosan subterranean termite. Please join us in welcoming Bruce!
