Keith Collinworth, President of Professional Pest Management, is considered by many to be a local expert in turf and ornamental weed, disease, and pest control. Keith is a graduate of FAMU and we are honored to have him speak to us on the subject of Weed Control Strategies. Many of you know Keith and this will give a great opportunity of becoming reacquainted with him. For those of you who don't know Keith this will allow for an excellent resource for L and O questions.....Blair
